Free Legal Presentation: Your Rights when Facing an Eviction

Overview

Community Legal Aid is partnering with the Akron Municipal Court, Fair Housing Contact Service, and the University of Akron School of Law to help tenants who are facing an eviction. This free legal presentation covers topics such as:

- Tenant rights during the eviction process
- Getting your security deposit back
- How to get your landlord to make repairs
- Strategies to avoid issues that can affect your ability to find housing in the future

Registration

Advance registration is not required.

Please note: Community Legal Aid presentations and events will be cancelled if the listed location is closed due to inclement weather.
