Ask a Lawyer Live - Back to school during Covid-19

Online event - free and open to the public.

Overview

This new series is our way of reaching out during the Covid-19 pandemic to make sure your rights are covered during this time.

Learning looks different during the pandemic. You may be concerned about your child's safety if your school has returned to in-person classrooms. Or you may feel like your child is not getting the academic support he or she needs by learning from home. Join attorney Clinton Householder to discuss how to help your child succeed in school during Covid-19.
