Advocate Training (free, online CLE): Family Law Series - Special considerations for representing low-income clients

Free and open to attorneys

August 4th, 2021

Overview:

Join us for the first in a four-part lunch and learn series on family law topics throughout the month of August.

Special considerations for low-income clients will touch on the issues that impact low-income clients going through a divorce. This training will be led by Legal Aid attorneys.

Registration:

Attend as many sessions as you like. Future trainings include:

- August 11th - QDROs: Part 1
- August 18th - QDROs: Part 2
- August 25th - Ten professionalism rules for practicing family law

When completing your registration for this CLE - simply check the boxes to tell us if you want to attend other sessions in this series. We will gladly complete your registration for all selected events.
