Management Team: Jodi Roberts

Jodi Roberts is Community Legal Aid's Communications & Development Manager.

Jodi came to Legal Aid in 2015 as an Americorp Vista and worked to increase the capacity of the Volunteer Legal Services Program (VLSP). In 2016, she was hired as a paralegal for the VLSP team. During that time she helped facilitate legal clinics and engage private practice attorneys in pro bono service.

As the Communications & Development Manager, Jodi oversees incoming requests for speakers, social media, and database management. She also assists with press relations, donor development, and content development for marketing and community education.

She actively supports her church by assisting with their communications, social media, and training programs. She also serves as the board secretary for Stark County Crime Stoppers.

Jodi earned her Associates Degree in Health and Human Services with an emphasis on Social Work through Stark State College in 2007. She is also a certified Life Coach, Health & Wellness Coach, and DISC Facilitator.
