Your Day in Divorce Court

What to expect

- Your attorney will spend time with you before your case goes to court
 - He or she will explain what will happen in the court and what you need to bring with you.
 - Discuss any issues or matters of concern to you with your attorney before you go in to see the judge.
- Be on time.
- Dress comfortably, conservatively, and show respect.
 - Do not wear:
 - Shorts
 - T-shirts with graphic language or pictures
- If there is more than one case you may have to wait, please be patient.
- Do not bring children to court unless specifically asked to do so.

When your case is called

- Your lawyer will give a brief statement of the facts.
- In a contested case you will take the stand and you will be under oath.
- Your attorney will ask you questions, the judge may ask questions, and the other attorney may ask questions.
- Do not argue with the judge, magistrate, or your attorney.
- A marital agreement settlement may be presented.
