Divorce 101-Representing Victims of Domestic Violence

This CLE is designed to provide a "nuts and bolts" understanding of the fields of Divorce, Custody, and Visitation, as well as the different types of support orders. In addition, representatives from QDRO Consultants will discuss pension division. Attendees will learn the skills necessary to interview victims of domestic violence and to ensure pathways by which victims can achieve safety, security and stability. This six hour seminar will also include one hour of professionalism.
